NLRB COMPOSITION TO CHANGE

>>>>>>Article supplied by Tom Kohn, Esq. Legal Advisor for the PA Conference of Teamsters

Thanks to the votes of Senators Manchin and Sinema, the proposed deal to seat a Republican member to the NLRB along with reappointing Board Chairman McFerran, Democrat, was defeated. That means that Trump will be able to appoint two conservative Republicans to the Board, giving that party a 3 to 2 majority. In addition, he is certain to discharge General Counsel Abruzzo and replace her with another conservative Republican. What this means, of course, is that much of the work that the current Board has done in reversing the prior Trump-Board's decisions will be subject to change, yet again, so hold on to your hats, as a strong wind of change is coming, and it won't be good for us!
